

Your cross-ownership proposal will lead to unwarranted concentration of power with a resulting harm to the existence of a viable, competitive press. This is not in the public interest. Rather it reflects a serious failure to appreciate the harm caused by few voices controlling access to 1st amendment values.